DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

In September 2022, the Company announced it had discontinued its cryptocurrency mining operation in Washington State and launched a new website - carbontokensmarket.com, which aims to be a single source of information on the expanding carbon tokens market (the "Website").

A "carbon token," is a non-fungible, tradable digital asset on a blockchain that represents one carbon credit or one tonne of carbon dioxide equivalent (CO₂e) of greenhouse gas emission reduction. Over the past year, there have been a number of companies that have created carbon tokens with the aim to use blockchain technology to build secure and efficient marketplaces to scale the trading of carbon credits. The Company created the Website to provide a single source for price and market information on existing carbon tokens and aggregate news for the emerging and expanding universe of carbon tokens.

In addition, the Company's wholly owned subsidiaries, BlockMint (Canada) Technologies Inc. ("BlockMint-Canada") and its wholly owned subsidiary, BlockMint (USA) Technologies Inc. ("BlockMint-USA"), continued in the business of developing distributed systems and networks that enable a more decentralized deployment of blockchain based applications such as cryptocurrency mining.

OUTLOOK AND OVERALL PERFORMANCE

Corporate

Financial Highlights

The Company had no revenue, so its ability to ensure continuing operations is dependent on either expanding its business, or raising additional debt or equity financing. It is anticipated that the website www.carbontokensmarket.com, as the only site aggregating pricing data and news on carbon tokens, will prove useful and popular with participants in the growing carbon tokens market. As user traction builds, the Company intends to earn revenues through a conventional ad-based business model.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2023, the Company's loss totaled $58,553 which consisted primarily of (i) income from discontinued operations of $76,527; (ii) operating expenses of $142,263; and (iii) foreign exchange gain of $7,183.

At September 30, 2023, the Company had a working capital surplus of $1,646,839 (December 31, 2022 - working capital surplus of $1,705,392). The Company had cash and cash equivalents of $1,561,532 (December 31, 2022 - $1,636,966). Working capital and cash and cash equivalents decreased during the nine months ended September 30, 2023 due to net cash used in operating activities of $75,434.

The Company has sufficient capital to meet its ongoing operating expenses and continue to meet its obligations on its current projects for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2024. See "Liquidity and Financial Position" below.

On September 28, 2023, Mr. Victor Hugo resigned as Chief Financial Officer ("CFO") of the Company, and Ms. Christina Wu was appointed as the new CFO of the Company.

Description of Business

In September 2022, the Company launched its new Website focused on tokenized carbon credits: carbontokensmarket.com. The Company created the Website to provide a single source for price and market information on existing carbon tokens and aggregate news for the emerging and expanding universe of carbon tokens. As user traction builds, the Company intends to earn revenues through a conventional ad-based business model.

In June 2023, the Company integrated ChatGPT into the Website. The new feature allows users to input queries via a chat box and receive ChatGPT-powered responses to questions regarding carbon markets, carbon credits, and most importantly carbon tokens.

The Company also develops distributed systems and networks that enable a more decentralized deployment of blockchain based applications such as cryptocurrency mining. The Company launched its first product, the distributed crypto-miner Minter browser, in 2019. Development and release of further software products was suspended in 2020 due to the price and volatility of cryptocurrencies. In February 2021, the Company released an upgraded version of the Minter browser and introduced a new feature which allows users to earn carbon credits to offset their carbon footprint. In May 2021, the Company re-released the Minter browser with another new feature which enabled users to also be able to earn fractional ownership in an NFT.

TRENDS

In September 2022, the Company announced that it had launched its new Website focused on tokenized carbon credits. A tokenized carbon credit, often referred to as a "carbon token," is a non-fungible, tradable digital asset on a blockchain that represents one carbon credit or one tonne of carbon dioxide equivalent (CO₂e) of greenhouse gas emission reduction. In 2021, there was approximately $2 billion in carbon credits traded in the voluntary carbon market. McKinsey & Company has forecasted that the value of the voluntary carbon credit market could reach up to $50 billion by 2030. Over the past year, there have been a number of companies that have created carbon tokens with the aim to use blockchain technology to build secure and efficient marketplaces to scale the trading of instruments that represent carbon credits.

OFF-BALANCE-SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

As of the date of this filing, the Company does not have any off-balance-sheet arrangements that have, or are reasonably likely to have, a current or future effect on the results of operations or financial condition of the Company, including, and without limitation, such considerations as liquidity and capital resources.
